

I – Comprehension – Questions

1. Give a title to the text

The Importance of Trees

2. Are trees important for people only?

No, they are important for both people and animals.

3. What do trees produce for people and animals?

Trees produce wood, medicine, fruits, leaves, and shadow.

4. What happens if people continuously destroy thousands of trees?

The desert appears, and the environment is destroyed.

5. How can we protect our environment?

We must plant a lot of trees.

II – Grammar

II – Grammar

A) Complete each sentence with a suitable tag question.

1. We use wood to cook our meals, don't we?
2. Cutting trees and burning the bush is not good at all, is it?
3. We must plant a lot of trees to stop the desertification, mustn't we?

B) Put the verbs between brackets in the correct tense.

1. My trees produced a lot of fruits last year.
2. Mohamed has bought her a new car tomorrow.
(Correction: "tomorrow" implies future; better: "will buy")
=> Mohamed will buy her a new car tomorrow.
3. Karim must not drink water now.

III – Essay

tomorrow. (Correction: "tomorrow" implies future; better: "will buy") => Mohamed will buy her a new car tomorrow.

3. Karim must not drink water now.

III – Essay

Tell us in a few lines the importance of trees.

Trees are very important in our lives. They give us wood to cook, build houses, and make furniture. They provide fruits and medicines. Trees also protect the environment by stopping desertification. Without trees, we cannot live because we need water, shade, and oxygen.

Souhaitez-vous une version formatée à imprimer ou à copier dans un document Word ?